Her clients include family business owners, real estate developers, tax exempt organizations, investment bankers, private equity fund managers, physicians, inventors, entertainers, business professionals, retirees, non-resident aliens, domestic partners and those of inherited wealth. B.A., Binghamton University (cum laude); J.D., St. John's University School of Law, LL.M. Tax, New York University.

Leonard Schneidman - Managing Director of Andersen Tax, has over 40 years of experience in international taxation. His work includes counseling clients on structuring and operation of private investment funds, advising high net worth foreign investors on U.S. investments and activities, helping U.S. and non-U.S. corporate clients with tax-efficient structuring of their business operations, and advising clients on the reporting of undisclosed income and/or foreign financial assets from offshore accounts through the IRS Offshore Voluntary Disclosure Program (OVDP) or Streamlined Filing Compliance Procedures, and Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FBAR).

Sarah E. Paul - is an Assistant United States Attorney in the Southern District of New York. Prior to joining the U.S. Attorney's Office, Sarah worked in private practice at the boutique firm of Spears & Imes, LLP, where she handled white collar criminal and civil litigation, and at the firm of Cravath, Swaine & Moore, LLP, where she handled complex civil litigation. Since last August, Sarah has served as the Tax Coordinator for all tax cases in the Southern District of New York. B.A., Cornell University; J.D. New York University School of Law.

Marianna Schwartzman - is an associate in the Private Wealth & Taxation Group at Meltzer Lippe. Prior to joining Meltzer Lippe, Marianna practiced law at the New York City law firm of Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, where she focused her practice on estates and trusts administration and domestic estate planning for high net worth individuals. Marianna continues to practice in all aspects of personal representation of individuals and families, as well as representation of fiduciaries. She successfully administers estates of significant volume and complexity, including probate and post-mortem tax elections and allocations. Marianna specializes in advising fiduciaries and families through all the stages of estates and trusts administration. B.A., Hunter College, (with honors); J.D., Fordham University School of Law.

Hon. Gail A. Prudenti - On January 1, 2017 Judge A. Gail Prudenti was appointed Interim Dean of the Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra, where she also serves, as of September 1, 2015, as the Executive Director of the Center for Children, Families and the Law. Prior to her current position at Hofstra, Judge Prudenti distinguished herself as a well-respected jurist and hands-on administrator throughout a judicial career that lasted more than two decades. Most recently, she served as the Chief Administrative Judge of the courts of New York State, having been appointed by Chief Judge Jonathan Lippman on December 1, 2011. As Chief Administrative Judge, she supervised the administration and operation of the statewide court system, with a budget of over $2.7 billion, 3,600 state and locally paid Judges and 15,000 non-judicial employees in over 350 court facilities.

Jason J. Smith - is a partner in the Private Wealth & Taxation Group at Meltzer Lippe. Jason focuses his practice on estate planning, asset protection, estate and trust administration and litigation. Jason's estate planning practice includes assisting individuals and families with tax-efficient and practical estate and gift planning, including the preparation of wills, revocable living trusts, insurance trusts and qualified personal residence trusts, grantor retained annuity trusts and dynasty trusts. He also counsels clients on asset protection strategies, including the use of trusts and the preparation of prenuptial agreements. His estate and trust administration practice dovetails with his trusts and estates litigation practice, where he advises clients in contested will and probate proceedings, fiduciary removal proceedings, trust construction cases, contested accountings proceedings, discovery and turnover proceedings and conservatorships and guardianship matters. Jason's trusts and estates litigation practice is augmented by his prior experience representing clients in complex commercial, class action, intellectual property and medical malpractice cases at the trial and appellate levels in both federal and state courts. B.S., New York University (magna cum laude); J.D., Yale Law School.

Sanford J. Schlesinger - Sanford ("Sandy") J. Schlesinger is a founding partner of the law firm of Schlesinger Gannon & Lazetera LLP. Mr. Schlesinger is a nationally recognized expert in the areas of estate and tax planning, estate administration, family-owned business planning, charitable planning and all related areas. He also handles all aspects of contested and litigated estate, trust and related tax matters. J.D., Fordham University, B.S. (with honors), Columbia University.

Mark E. Wilensky - is a partner in the Private Wealth & Taxation Group at Meltzer Lippe. Prior to joining the firm, Mark was a tax attorney in the New York City office of Roberts & Holland LLP for 12 years. A large part of Mark's practice involves advising clients looking to sell, exchange, lease or refinance real estate and take advantage of the tax deferral opportunities offered by section 1031 exchanges, installment sales and long-term lease agreements. Mark is an Adjunct Professor at Cardozo School of Law. B.S., Johns Hopkins University, M.A., The University of Chicago; J.D., Columbia University; LL.M. Tax, New York University.

Christopher D. Wright, Esq., CPA - is a Senior Tax Manager at Marks Paneth LLP. He works exclusively in the trust, estate and gift tax arena. In addition, he advises fiduciaries on estate and trust administration issues, including informal and formal fiduciary accountings. With over 30 years of accounting and taxation experience, Mr. Wright began his career with Arthur Anderson & Co. in both the Portland, Oregon and New York offices. Immediately prior to joining the firm in 2014, he had his own law and accounting practice based in Portland Oregon, which focused primarily on the needs of business owners and estate planning. Mr. Wright has devoted much of his career to the tax and estate planning issues that are unique to same sex couples.

UJA Federation
NEW YORK

National Conference of CPA Practitioners

To the students, alumni, faculty and staff of the Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University, the law is not just something to be studied — it is to be lived. It informs our careers, our lives and our interactions with fellow citizens. It is the means by which we make an impact in the world. Courts, law firms and employers recognize the significance of a Juris Doctor (J.D.) from Hofstra Law, or a degree from our joint J.D./M.B.A. and J.D./M.P.H. programs, because they know our graduates are renowned for their legal knowledge, preparedness and poise.

Meltzer Lippe is a law firm combining the best features of small firms with lawyers from major Metropolitan law firms. It functions in a full range of business areas: tax, corporate, real estate, labor and employment, commercial litigation and social media and privacy law, as well as wealth planning for high net worth individuals and trusts and estates.

ADVISING FAMILIES ACROSS GENERATIONS

STEP is the worldwide professional association for those advising families across generations.
